BEHALF OF TEXAS EX-UNION SOLDIERS

Twenty Thousand of Them Are Ready and Willing to Receive Office at His Hands.

E. H. R. Green has been informed by the ex-Union soldiers at present assembled in Houston.

The endorsement was secured yesterday afternoon immediately following the adjournment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Texas, at Turner hall.

The movement was entirely independent of the G. A. R. meeting, the meeting being a separate one presided over by John L.
Boyd.

There was not a unanimity of opinion with reference to Mr. Green. One gentleman said he did not know the Texas republican, while another contended he was from Mr. Green's town (Terrell) and had been assured by him that the ex-Union soldiers would receive all the consideration possible at the hands of the republican party.

Another (H. E. Conner of Waco) remarked that in 1862 he sat at the same table with Mrs. Hattie Green in Chicago, and knew she raised a son worthy of respect and the name he bore.

The following, while not containing Mr.
Green's name, is the substance of the endorsement adopted with only two or three dissenting votes:

To His Excellency, the President of the United States, Washington, D. C.
Your Excellency: We have signed respectfully submit that there are about 20,000 ex-Union soldiers, sailors and marines who have made their homes in Texas, most of them having immigrated here some time ago, and who are now in the different States of the Union. Some of them are representatives of every brigade and battalion that fought for the life of the Union. They are your constituents and are entitled to the same rights and consideration as the other citizens of the country. We are, therefore, in the name of the Republic, asking you to take prompt action to secure for them the same rights and consideration as the other citizens of the country.

CONCERT TONIGHT.

By the Junior Class of the High School for the Seniors.

The Junior class of the Houston High school will give a concert at Turner hall tonight for the purpose of raising a fund for the annual High school play to be given in honor of the graduates at the end of the school term. A programme of rare merit has been arranged and will be a treat to lovers of music, dancing and elocution.

The members of the class having labored the concert in charge have labored zealously for the success of the entertainment and assure a delightful evening to all who attend. The programme itself is quite a drawing card, consisting of the local Salem and as the proceeds go to make a success of the only social feature of the school session they should have a large attendance.

The Juniors hope to be remembered by the friends of the High school, as they are anxious to make the dance complimentary to the seniors a brilliant affair.

The following is the programme to be rendered:

Recitation Sam Swinford
Recitation Judge W. N. Shaw
Vocal Solo Mr. Jenkins
Violin Solo Dr. Green
Recitation Miss Maudie McLeod
Recitation Miss Maudie McLeod
Piano Solo Prof. Oscar Peldon Vocal Solo Mr. Van Heusen
Recitation Miss Maudie McLeod
Vocal Solo Mrs. A. Hume The Juniors, in their entirety and adopted with only two or three dissenting votes.

OIL SUPERINTENDENTS.

Will Hold Their Fourth Annual Convention Here May 6 and 7.

The fourth annual convention of the Oil Mill Superintendents' association will be held in Houston May 6 and 7. All roads have made a special rate for the round trip, tickets on sale the 21st and 22nd, limited to return on the 31st.

Subjects for discussion:
"Hulls: Their Value and Use."
"Hulls: Their Construction and Operation."

"Construction and Operation of Presses." The following gentlemen will be present and will address the convention:
Mr. J. C. Hanson of New York—"Oil Mill Economy and Advantages to be Derived from Organization." Mr. L. K. Bell of New York—"The Handling and Care of Oil Mill Products and their Commercial Value."

Mr. E. M. Telford of Galveston—"The National Association of Oil Mill Superintendents, Past, Present and Future." Paint, Oil and Drug Reporter, Manufacturers' Record and Manufacturers of Oil Mill Machinery will be represented.

Headquarters of the association will be at the Hutchins house, where all delegates will report on arrival. Convention will convene at 9 a. m., Tuesday, the 6th, at the Cotton Exchange.

Decorate for the Endeavorers.

To the Merchants and Business Men of Houston:

As you are probably aware, the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor convention will be held in Houston May 4, 5 and 6. This will be the largest convention held in Texas this year. The most prominent members from over Texas will be in attendance, as well as a number from abroad. Houston merchants are expected to maintain their reputation for liberality and being alive and up to date.

We respectfully request that every merchant and others will decorate their places of business and thus show their appreciation of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavorers who will be here. We ask this not altogether from a desire to please and delight our guests and to present a pleasant appearance, but also from a business standpoint. It is well known that their own way, and will leave more money in Houston than all the other conventions together. All those who have decorated for San Jacinto day, if the decorations are really appropriate for the occasion, they would serve for the Christian Endeavor convention, also as good citizenship and a love of country are prominent characteristics of the Christian Endeavorers.

The local union colors are green and white. The green is the shade of the magnolia leaf. The monogram (C. E.) can be had by applying to any of the 37 committees.

John Estelwell,
Chairman Decoration Committee.

The Post Serenaded.

The military band of the Agricultural and Mechanical college of College Station gave The Post a musical treat yesterday morning before departing for the college.

They caused many favorable comments upon the artistic manner in which they rendered the following beautiful selections: "Bomp on the Lawn," "Marching Song," "Silver Plume." They have for their musical director Mr. George W.
Grass, who is well known in this city, and their drum major is H. C. Conner, a Houston boy. The following young men, all students of the college, compose the band:
W. A. Harrison, W. Faust, A. H. Homann, H. E. Sternberg, H. E. Rawlins, H. H.
Tracy, J. N. Ferguson, T. C. Hinkle, J.
Garbabe, S. L. Cobb, L. D. Williams, H. B.
Sellers, J. H. McCrary, H. C. Charlesworth, J. Hallick and J. W. Preston.

Miss Rita Shiba is sponsor for the band.
The Post thanks the boys for their courtesy and wishes them a Godspeed down life's pathway.
